This secret garden is your perfect retreat during your Ozarks vacation! Not too close but not too far, this flowery private home is in the perfect place between remote natural splendor and all the Branson fun! Just minutes away from Bull Shoals Lake, you won't find a more prime place for anyone who loves to fish, kayak, or just splash around in the water with their friends and family. Make friends with the minnows and bass or catch them for your next tasty dinner! Just a bit farther and you can experience all the fun of Downtown Branson and the Strip! From live entertainment to delicious food and super fun attractions that everyone in your group will love, no face will be left without a smile when you spend a day in Branson. When you get your fill of fun, head back to this adorable retreat for a second filling! This home has a private pool for everyone to splash in, and for those that want to keep their hair dry, take a seat and watch from the outdoor gazebo or the enclosed sunroom that has your very own Hot Tub! Relax as the sun goes down around the fire pit, and no worries about lighting the fire: firewood is already included! Propane is provided for the grill! With 3 separate bedrooms and tons of space, this home gives everyone plenty of breathing room. Try getting that in a hotel! Dry off after a swim and get a snack from the full sized kitchen, or catch up on your favorite shows on the flat screen TVs. Don't forget to wind down and share your favorite parts of the day with each other before planning your next adventure in the Ozarks!
